FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How is the financial assistance amount determined?

Financial assistance is based on annual gross income, family size and personal circumstances when you apply. Gross annual income includes wages/salary of all individuals contributing to the household income, as well as unemployment, child support, parental support, disability income, SSI, government assistance and retirement income.

What is the duration of assistance and how do I renew?

Financial assistance is awarded in 3 to 12 month increments depending on what documents provided. At the end of the membership simply reapply for continued assistance by completing this application again. If you do not submit the appropriate paperwork for renewal your membership will expire. Membership dues, additional fees, and assistance are subject to change when re-applying for assistance.

When should I expect my application to be processed?

Completed applications containing all the necessary paperwork will be reviewed within 14 business days. Your request for assistance may be returned without all the required paperwork.
